PRIMITIVE GATHERINGS
To Plant a Garden is to Believe in Tomorrow
- Audrey Hepburn

My life is colored by quilts, and with Garden Gatherings, I’ve brought the garden into my home. Tiny Tulips, Carnations, Roses, Posies and Ground Cover in bold shades of Rose, Sunflower, Lavender and Lily, these shirting-style prints are perfectly suited for the small-scale piecing I love.

Every garden needs a foundation, a backdrop that lets the flowers bloom, and thrive. Using the same prints and colors, these Garden Gatherings Shirtings are background and light prints that put the color on ivory. The look is primitive, with a bit of vibrant color. Traditional, and timeless.

- Lisa Bongean
